

WACO.

A Young Judean was organized in this city Sunday, August 28th, and the following officers were elected.

Miss Yetta Rosenberg, President.
Miss Ida Brickman, Vice President.
Miss Thelma Cohen, Secretary.
Master Ben Chazanow, Treasurer.

Regular meetings will be held every first and third Sunday of the month. Twenty-five members were enrolled at the first meeting and with the help of our worthy Rabbi Siegel, we hope to make this one of the largest as well as most interesting and educational organizations in Waco.

A beautiful and impressive Bar Mitzvah ceremony took place Saturday, August 20, at Agudath Jacob Synagogue. George Chazonow, the Bar Mitzvah, who is one of the best pupils in the Hebrew School read the portion in the Torah and the Haftorah and also delivered a masterly talk in Yiddish. After the services the entire congregation was treated to a delicious Kiddush.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. Chazanow served a sumptuous supper at their beautiful home to a big crowd of relatives and friends. Upon an appeal made by Rabbi Siegel a big sum of money was raised for relief and for the Talmud Torah. Telegrams were received from New York and from Canada. The out of town guests were: Mrs. Feldman from San Antonio, a cousin of Mrs. F. Chazanow and Mr. and Mrs. Beerman and family of Crawford, Texas.

Mayor Ben Richrads of Waco, granted the request made by a committee composed of Rabbi Siegel, Sam Greenberg and Alex Genecov, and the Zionist Flag, together with Old Glory were hanging from the mast on the city hall, Sunday, in honor of the opening of the Zionist Congress at Carlsbad.

Waco Hebrew School.

The Waco Hebrew School has one of the best indoor baseball teams in Central Texas.

Lanky Sanders Lowich, who took the burden of pitching for the Waco Hebrew school from good looking Isie Kaplan, is going great guns.

Asher Lowich, captain and catcher in the reliable and catches like Schalk and hits like Cobb.

Our husky friend, Ben Chazanow, or better known as Babe 2nd, hits homers by the bushel. He outfields Sisler.

Moses Polonsky fields like a demon and when a hit is needed he wallops the ball. He will take Ed Collin's place some day.

(Slim) Sam Rosenberg, our secretary, holds down shotstop like Maranville and hits better.

Joe Genecov, star third sacker, hits better than Groh.

Our outfield consists of capable and well known players.

Ruddy Rosenthal, Froggy Brickman, Clumsy Georgs Chazanow, compose our outfield, while Marble Shooter Lape Rosenberg is sub.

We play indoor baseball. Our ages are from 12 to 15 years.

Write to Asher Lowich, 1520 West Avenue, Waco, Texas.

If you are our size we accept a challenge. We also have a clever second team.

Little Miss Nathalie Lebenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Lebenson, was hostess to about thirty little friends at her home on Grant street Thursday evening in celebration of her ninth birthday.

The entertainment was one of the prettiest children's affairs of the fall, and the young hostess was assisted in her hospitality by her mother, Misses Glorene Altfield, Flossie Farquahar, Lucille Barnett and Leslie E. In the pinning-the-tail-on-the-donkey contest, Miss Vera Stonecipher was most successful among the girls, and Charles E. Veros Jr. among the boys and both were awarded prizes. Miss Rosaline Joseph guessed most correctly at the number of beans in a jar, and B. Frank Johnson Jr. and Joseph Clark won the peanut contest first and second places and all were remembered with trophies.

Punch was served during the afternoon to the little folks and later on they were invited into the prettily lighted dining room, where the birthday cake occupied the place of honor on the table. In the cut for lucky pices, the ring was cut by Master Andrew Hudspeth, the thimble by Miss Rose Marion Art, and the dime by Miss Hannah Catch.
